We rather suspect that this Spring instead of there being a demand for Dahlia tubers the real demand will be for tubers of the South American plant Solanum tuberosum—Irish potatoes to you. As we have no potatoes to sell, our stock being confined to Roll of Honor Dahlias and novelty "Charm" dahlias from England, we've decided to struggle along with just a price list instead of our customary illustrated catalog.

As you probably know Mr. Derrill W. Hart, the best known dahlia show judge in the United States, weighs the merits of the new dahlias as they make their appearance at the shows or in the gardens of the dahlia breeders and from the hundreds shown selects the few most outstanding varieties for places on his annual Dahlia Roll of Honor. This roll is the best guide to use when purchasing new dahlias. It appears in the December issue of the American Home Magazine.

ROLL OF HONOR DAHLIAS ORIGINATED BY CURTIS REDFERN

SETH PARKER (December 1932 Roll of Honor) Formal Decorative. Very large Peach colored flower. Seth Parker has every desired quality that a dahlia should have. — very large size, rich warm coloring, ideal stems, both long and strong, and the blossoms are carried high above the bush. The plant itself is a sturdy grower, very symmetrical in shape, and the foliage is both healthy and attractive. If you are allowing yourself to buy but one of the new dahlias being offered for the first time this Spring, by all means let your choice be Seth Parker. Strong roots, each $10.00 net

We use the name Seth Parker with the gracious permission of Mr. Phillips H. Lord, who is the original Seth Parker on the Sunday evening programs of the National Broadcasting Company.

NANCY REDFERN (1931 Roll of Honor) Semi-Cactus. A most delightful shade of Pink deepening toward the center to a Watermelon Pink. Stock limited. Strong roots, each $7.50

JENNY LIND (1930 and 1931 Rolls of Honor) Informal Decorative. A fine large flower on a strong stem. The color is that shade of pink best described as La France Rose Pink. Strong roots, each $5.00

BAGDAD (1929, 1930, 1931, Rolls of Honor and also in 1931 and 1932 included by Mr. Hart in his short list of the most outstanding dahlias seen at the shows). Informal Decorative. The most brilliant flame color imaginable; the flower large and beautifully formed. This variety should be in every dahlia collection. Extra Special Offer: Strong root, each $5.00 and with every order for a Bagdad root we will include another root of Bagdad free. Grow both yourself or better still give the second root to a friend.

We have insufficient stock of our earlier Roll of Honor Dahlias Barbara Redfern, Richelieu and Yosemite to list them this year.

CURTIS REDFERN ROLL OF HONOR DAHLIA SEED.

Each spring we plant about 200 of our own dahlia seed which we harvest from selected large varieties. From this limited planting we developed a Roll of Honor Dahlia each year for the past several seasons. Naturally we prefer to keep this seed for our own garden, but if you feel you simply must have a packet of our seed the price is One Hundred Dollars. The packet will contain more than 100 seeds.

"CHARM" DAHLIA SEED.

We gather this seed from more than forty varieties of imported "Charm" dahlias. You will be delighted with the many fine seedlings a packet of these seed will produce. The price per packet of at least 100 seeds is $2.50 net.

We prepay carriage charges. Discount to growers is one-third unless the item is a special offer or is listed "net". We add a free root with our compliments to all orders for roots. No order will be filled for less than $2.00. Shipments made before April 1st at purchasers' risk against freezing.
